PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

NOTICE.

One thousand copies of the Daily Bulletin are printed and circulated to-day in Maysville and the various towns of Mason county. It contains the Holiday advertisements of the leading firms of the city to which we call attention, and invite our readers to bear in mind when they make their Holiday purchases.

BOB LOVEL, he stood in his storehouse big,
A weighing out piles of feed,
When up stepped a man from down in the town,
Who said "it warn't true what he seed,"
Who said "it warn't true what he seed, seed,"
Who said "it warn't true what he seed."

That man when convinced fell down in a fit,
And likely he kicked and did holler,
And the doctors all put on Lovel the blame
For giving so much for a dollar-ol-lollar
For giving so much for a dollar.

ICE is going into summer quarters.

COAL continues to be sold at ten cents a bushel.

WANTED.—A head for the Maysville fire department.

TURKEYS are lower in price than they were. They are very abundant.

A LARGE part of the Pittsburg coal fleet passed down in the ice yesterday.

SCHWARTZ & Co's. confectionary store at Paris was robbed by burglars last week.

You are doing the correct thing in keeping in mind those Christmas slippers at Ranson's.

THE work of driving piles in Limestone Creek has been suspended on account of the cold weather.

WM. BRADY KEARNS, the alleged poisoner of Mary Jane Young last March, at Ironton, has been acquitted.

MAKE up your mind at once that the children expect Santa Claus to call on them. Do not allow him to disappoint the little ones.

THE river is falling, and some fears are felt that if the present cold weather continues any length of time, it will be closed by the ice.

THE Knights of Honor at the meeting next Tuesday evening will elect officers for the coming year. A full attendance of the members is desired.

CAPT. G. W. HUGGINS has bought the steamer J. S. Neal and changed her name to "Katie Timmonds." The boat will run from Pomeroy to Cincinnati.

JOHN HENNESSY, a bar-tender at Lexington, who refused to answer questions propounded to him by the grand jury, was fined $25 and sent to jail for one month. Take warning.

MANY of the large cities have passed laws forbidding the sale by merchants of toy pistols. They are very dangerous playthings for children and any law forbidding their using them is wise.

OUR readers in the country who expect to make their holiday purchases in Maysville are requested to consult the advertisements in our columns, and buy of those who there ask for their patronage.

R. E. POGUE, of Quincy, Ky., has invented an automatic car coupler whereby cars can be detached by an ingenious contrivance without leaving the top of the car. The coupler is also a self coupler and by its working no danger of life need be apprehended.

Do justice to yourself by purchasing some of those elegant holiday goods now being displayed at the cheap glassware headquarters of S. Simon, on Market street, near Third. While his prices are astonishingly low, he offers other inducements to buyers. Read his advertisement.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Sailors Drowned.

NEW YORK, December 16, 1882.—The British bark Langrig Hall struck on Turkar Rock coast, of England, to-day. Twenty-four of the crew were drowned and only two saved.

Boiler Explosion.

CANTON, ILL., Dec. 16, 1882.—Two boilers in Harlin & Orendorf's agricultural works exploded to-day, wrecking the building and killing nine persons. All of the dead are Americans and leave families. Canton is in mourning with flags at half-mast.

Fire at Gallipolis.

GALLIPOLIS, O., Dec. 16, 1882.—A fire last night destroyed O'Neill's and P. A. Sann's drug stores, E. Hesler's cigar factory, Harry Frank's clothing store and J. H. Robinson's confectionery store and damaged other property. The loss is about $40,000.

Crittenden Held For Murder.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., December 16.—Thomas Crittenden to-day had an examining trial on the charge of killing Rose Mosby, Wednesday, at Anchorage, this State. He was represented by Lee Woolfolk, county attorney; defense by Major W. Kinney. The evidence was to the same effect as reports telegraphed by the Associated Press. Defense offered no testimony. Crittenden was held without bail to answer the charge of murder.

Petered Out.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 16, 1882.—The Sunday News, a somewhat tender plant in the journalistic garden of this city, will bloom no more. Some time since George Baber, an experienced journalist, purchased what he was led to believe was a half interest in the News, from Martin W. Larue, and it is now claimed by the owner of the supposed remaining interest that Larue owned really nothing in the paper, and that it was his own. Larue has gone to Frankfort to establish the Commonwealth, an afternoon daily, and his side of the case has not been heard. The matter will be adjudicated in the courts, it is said.

Hon. Godlove S. Orth.

LAFAYETTE, IND., December 16.—Hon. Godlove S. Orth, member of Congress from the Ninth District of Indiana, died to-night at a few minutes before 11 o'clock. He has been in failing health for several months. Some time ago he had a cancer removed from his lip, but did not eradicate the disease, which appeared on his neck during the summer. The disease baffled the skill of the most experienced surgeons, and for weeks the patient has been fed only liquid nourishments. His term of office as Congressman would have expired next March. Mr. Orth was born in Pennsylvania in 1817, and for over forty years resided in Lafayette.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

R. D. Barr will return home to Pittsburg, to-day.

C. M. Browning, of Cincinnati, is in Maysville to-day.

Miss Ida E. Thompson and her mother, of this city, are visiting relatives at Germantown.

John H. Hall, who has been very sick at Winchester, Ky., his friends will be pleased to hear, is rapidly getting well.

Miss Jennie Mayhugh, the acknowledged belle of Orangeburg, is in the city. She will return home before the holidays.

The marriage of Miss Alice Connor Phister, daughter of Hon. E. C. Phister, to Mr. Charles Field Griffin, will be solemnized at the Church of the Nativity on Thursday morning, Dec. 28th, at eleven o'clock. Rev. W. D. Powers will officiate.

AN experienced farmer recommends that oats be soaked sufficiently to swell them before feeding to stock. Ground oats are in proper condition at all times, but millers are not partial to grinding oats. When soaked the husk is partly torn away, and the facility of digestion is increased. Poultry will carefully pick out the soaked grains from the dry when allowed a preference in the matter.

This week will bring a harvest for those who offer attractions in holiday goods and who attract the public attention thereto. The BULLETIN is full of holiday announcements which will serve its readers as a directory in making their purchases. We hope they will give their patronage to those who ask for it through our columns, and give it liberally.

THE ice gatherers were busy all day yesterday. The ice obtained was of good quality and about four inches thick.

A PHYSICIAN gives the following rule by which to determine diphtheria from ulcerated sore throat. He says: "If the throat is red and smaller, no fear of diphtheria. But if it looks as though somebody had blown a handful of ashes into the throat—dull gray color—look out. It's diphtheria's danger signal."

GEORGE ORT, jr., the enterprising furniture dealer, is offering a very attractive line of goods suitable for the holidays, which will be found very cheap and desirable. He has a great variety of fine folding chairs, toy wagons, cradles, etc., and a new stock of bedroom sets and furniture generally. Give him a call.

BUYERS of holiday goods who are searching for the useful will find at Viceroy & Lee's a very handsome line of gentlemen's furnishing goods which cannot fail to please the most critical taste. They make a specialty of this class of goods and are very certain they have nothing to fear from competition as to price and styles.

A CHILD'S WISDOM.

Between the half-drawn curtains faintly gleamed
The early dawn's first pale and glimmering ray
But through my heart ran a fever as I dreamed,
The poet's plaint: "Give me but yesterday,
Through swiftly-opening doors with flying feet,
My little daughter, with her curls of gold,
Came eagerly the morning to greet;
The little maid who yesterday we told,
To-morrow, if the skies were not unkind,
Out into country meadows she should go,
With beating heart and shining eyes to find
The sweet shy haunts of wild flowers hiding low,
Flushed in the morning light, she danced and sang
While I forgot the poet's murmuring lay,
As through the room her sweeter wisdom rang:
"Mamma! mamma! To-morrow is to-day!"

Killing Game With Brick-Bats.

Delaware Democrat.
Bevans Donovan, who resides on Rehoboth Bay, has a novel way of supplying himself with the game that abounds in that section. Of late ducks and geese in great numbers have been accustomed to pitch on a strip of marsh which forms a part of the farm. Donovan, whenever he feels like dining on game, disdaining the breech-loader, arms himself with a hat full of brick-bats, goes out and knocks over canvas-back, red-head and back ducks at will.

A Little Georgian's Prayer.

Gwinnett Herald.
A devout little boy living inside the incorporation was heard to say, in solemn attitude, the following:
"Lord, I'm got a cold, awful one, too—I want you to come and cure me, cure me quick, too. I can't see you, but guess you can see me. Wake me up soon in the mornin'. Don't care whether you wake Henry up or not. Amen."

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered, as it is certain it effects and does not blister. READ PROOF BELOW.

From Rev. P. N. GRANGER,

Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District, ST. ALBANS, VT., Jan. 20, 1880.
DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, I cured a horse of lameness caused by a spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ringbone was forming. I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found. Respectfully yours, P. N. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell.

STROUGHTON, MASS., March 16, 1880.
B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed two bone spavins with Kendall's Spavin Cure, one very large one, don't know how long the spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off and two for the small one. I have used ten bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me it will be very great. Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE is sure in its effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach a every deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or other enlargement, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment is used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects.

Send address for Illustrated Circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unequalled success to our knowledge, for best as well as used. Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. ALL DRUGGISTS have it or can get it for you or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Enosburgh Falls, Vermont. 174.
